

JACQUI NANCEY NEWBORNS MATERNITY NURSE / NEWBORN NANNY TRAINING

fees & registration form

have you had enough of nannying?

Would you like to upgrade your skills & pay from Nannying to Maternity Nursing?
Or to qualify as a Specialist Breastfeeding Baby Angel?
Perhaps travel as a globe trotting Maternity Nurse?

our baby angel training & jobs can help you

benefits

Successful Students qualify as competent Breastfeeding Support Baby Angels.
Please note that our Baby Angel Certificates reflect your Specialist Breastfeeding expertise in supporting nursing Mums breastfeed successfully, which most Maternity Nurses lack in their work with Breastfeeding Mums. Your training will enable you to trouble shoot Breastfeeding problems such as latching on difficulties, sore nipples, painful breast enjoyment or mastitis naturally without prescribed medication.

You will also become skilled at relieving baby colic/ wind, reflux, low infant weight gain in newborns; or sleepless nights when dealing with older babies?

immediate work referrals

New qualified Baby Angels with at least two years work experience with newborns and babies under the age of twelve months; in possession of good references and up to date registration requirements below, will also get immediate referrals to some of London's top Maternity nursing agencies and abroad to places like Hong Kong or America. Including first hand referrals to all our Expecting or Baby Café clients on our website Job search home page.
